

Website rundown

1. Design Edit:

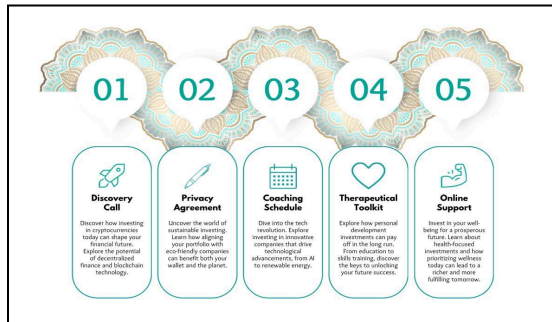

- Check the articles Display / there are only 4 categories that make space equivalent to 4 and make the title bold and make both the title and the lines clickable.

- We have to put a segment call "transformational journey" as " similar to segment called online workshops that shows the trauma relief package, release and renew package, emotional eating package equivalent to those packages highlighted in the packages page.

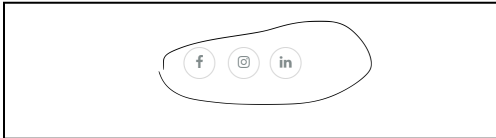

- Introduce the " coaching journey " under " transformational journey " that showcases the coaching steps to take similar to :

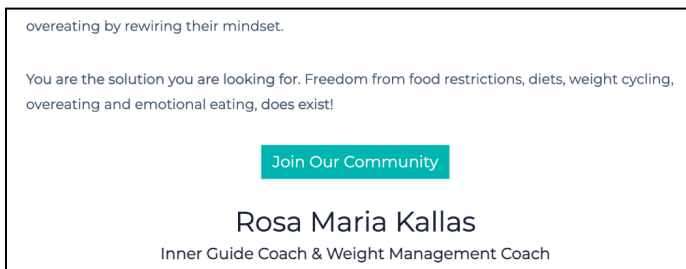

2. Link Edit:

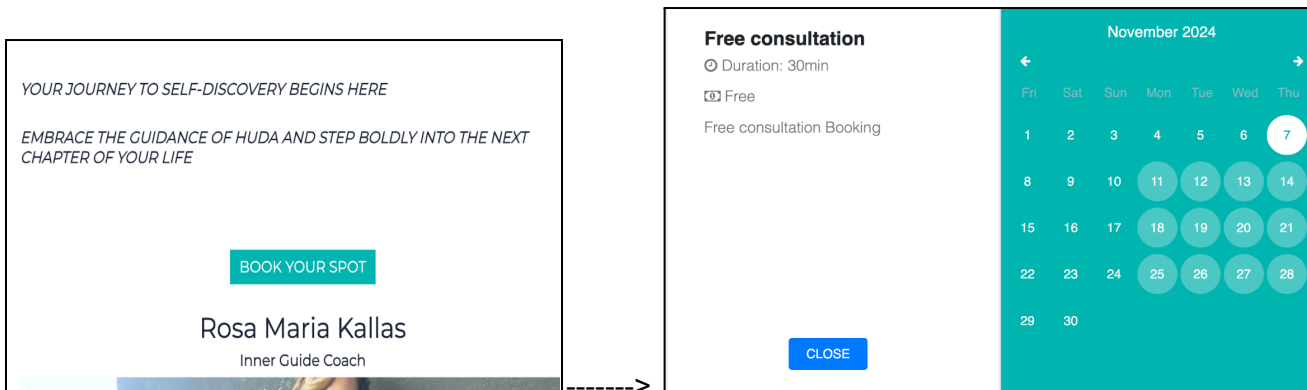

- Link Icons: LinkedIn & Instagram / Check the email icon if it is working

- The “ join our community” in weight mastery program should redirect me to the facebook page (fb page not open yet but to learn how to imbed links in buttons)

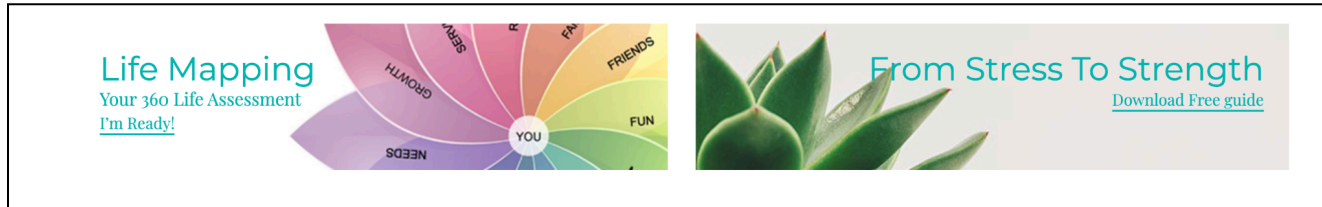

- The “ book your spot” , keep it the same but when i click close it should redirect me back to the program page not to the packages page (P.S: all close buttons should redirect the client back to the main page not packages page)

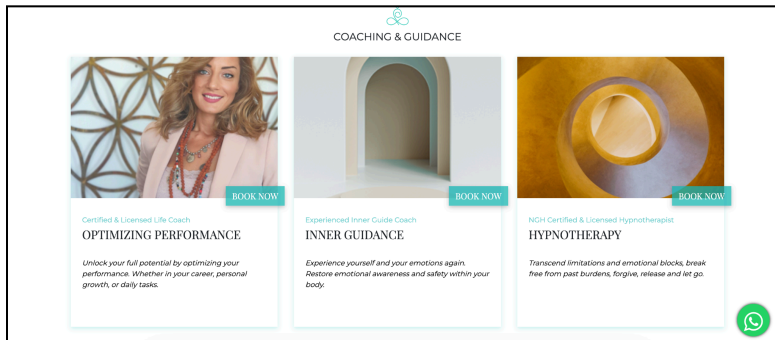

3. Pictures edits:

- Right and left banners dimension to edit the pictures

- Packages' pictures (dimension for a good resolution)

- How to add 4 picture grid here in huda retreat 'those pictures will have the pictures of the coaches in the retreat but they do not redirect to anything else.

4. Email edit:

- Email to be used to redirect everything i will receive the bookings "rm.kallas@gmail.com"

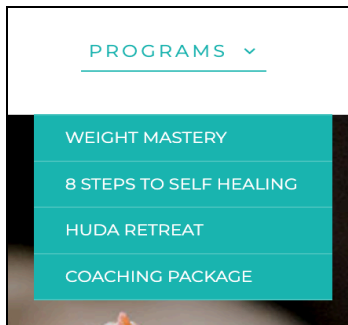

5. Pages edit:

- Events: design and event page.
 - Currently there are no events and the event page should mention this however we will show that coach rosa maria is available to be booked for speaking engagements and here we will add a segment where one can download her bio.
 - For this design we need a title that highlights there are no current events and underneath it we need two boxes (windows) one that has a picture of rosa and the title BOOK FOR SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS with a downloadable link to her speaking engagement brochure. The other has a picture of rosamaria and a title that says bio and a link where they can download the bio.

- Programs: To remove 8 steps to self healing, coaching package and huda retreat from the programs

- Retreats:
Same template as programs section with the possibility to click on each retreat and access the internal page same as the programs template.

6. Navigation edit

- When we click on weight mastery program and then buy now, the section packages is empty it should show all the packages

- How to edit the training section

7. Information edit

- Fix the duration and cost to euro for each package (teach me)
